

Introduction to Welding

Gain fundamental skills
via hands-on experience

Wide-ranging course topics

- Practical welding skills using MIG welding techniques
- Experience with real welding equipment and workshop settings
- Ability to read and follow simple technical drawings
- Stronger literacy, numeracy and communication skills
- Improved employability — teamwork, problem-solving, planning & initiative
- Confidence to take the next step towards employment or further training
- Weld a bag trolley

Course outcomes

- ✓ Safety procedures and practices in welding.
- ✓ Selection and preparation of welding materials.
- ✓ Introduction to different welding processes such as arc welding, MIG welding, and TIG welding.
- ✓ Basic MIG welding techniques and skills.
- ✓ MIG welding equipment operation and maintenance.
- ✓ MIG welding quality control and inspection.
- ✓ Practical hands-on MIG welding exercises.

Who can benefit from this course?

- ✓ Individuals seeking an introduction and considering a career in welding, engineering or agricultural sectors.
- ✓ Agricultural employees wanting to upskill or cross-skill in welding to enhance their job prospects and career advancement opportunities.
- ✓ Early school leavers or those with no welding experience looking for an introduction to the field.
- ✓ Home hobbyists, metal artists, anyone who is wanting to learn basic welding and increase their language, literacy, numeracy and employability skills.

Details

Course:	Introduction to Welding
Location:	Hamilton
Duration:	1-day a week over 4-weeks, 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM.
Dates:	Refer to our website for upcoming dates or speak to us today.
Cost:	$385^ includes all materials to build your own bag trolley. (^Any additional projects chosen may attract an additional cost.)
Participants:	Limited to 6 participants per course.
Prerequisites:	Participants must register and be fully enrolled prior to starting this course to take part. Open to Australian and NZ residents 17+* No prior welding experience required. (*Eligibility and funding criteria apply.)

Further information

Discuss your interest in this course and eligibility for government funding with us today.

1800 883 343
info@rist.edu.au
rist.edu.au

